Jake, MAYE you been with your wife to Jakel, Jewell & Co.'s New York Furnishing Store! No. Where is it—what does he keep! Jefferson street, below the Market—Furniture and Carpets cheaper than I ever saw in all my life. Where did you get that, and there all my life, and that fine Delaine, and so cheap? Why, at Christopher's. What did you pay for that French Lawel Why, and 18 cents, worth to wis. And, husband, he has Hoops, at only 50 cents! Where does he do histopsal Why, at the sorate of Jefferson and Market—I thought every body knew.

Tone. Have you heard the news about the going to have auction or wondry, Wednesday and laturely Evenings. That suits me; there is always something going on them: Consider me in.

DR. CHAMBERLIN. (late of Baltimore) has taken rooms at No. 306 Third Street, Dayton, Ohlo, and tenders his professional services to the public for the sarctul diagnosis and statinient
of all diseases of a chronic and nervous character.
He makes no compromise with the stomach in way
of medications but relies stoley in the most subtle and powerful of all agents—Electricity.

Dr. C. would here state he is not introducing a system of principle based upon chance and uncertainty, but one at all times reliable, and is the result of ten years labor, study and investigation, and has been tested by him in over four thousand cases.
Everything connected with his operations as new,
and anknown to medical men and all others, except those who have been instructed by him.
His special claims may be briefly stated as follows:

I. In determining the condition of the human body by an electrical diagnosis, which points out the locality and character of the disease.

2. The specific action of electricity on the body.

3. The distinctive influence of the two polarities,
the inward and outward.

And lastly: The solentific application of the two polarities to diseased states of the human body, tryating each siste according to its requirements
and the fixed laws which govern the action of electricity.

Where these principles are thoroughly understood

no mystery.

The following diseases are permanently and spec-The following diseases are personneally and speedily cured by electrical treatment:
Pulmonary Consumption, first and middle stages,
Toroid Liver, Dyspepsia, Nouragits, Babetis, Price,
Paralysis, Rheumatism, Brain Diseases, Choroce, Semmal Weakness, Impotensy, Deafness, Amaurosis, Gatarrit, Dropsy, ckin Diseases, Tumors, Ulcers,
All diseases incident to Femsies, Fits, stiff Joints, Gontracted Buscles, Ague, Spinal Difficulties and nervous and chronic diseases generally. The aforesaid diseases are directly under the control of the electrical agent and Dr. C. never rails to produce a permanent cure in all reasonable cases.
His apparatus is so constructed that it produces.
